 - a. these Terms,
 - b. SOW, and
Purchase Order.
2. Ambiguities. In the event of any ambiguities, conflicts or inconsistencies between or among any of the provisions of an Order, the provisions shall govern in the following order of precedence with each taking precedence over those listed subsequently:

 - e. SOWs, and
 - f. Purchase Order, as applicable.
3. Purchase Order. Each Purchase Order issued by Customer is an offer to the Supplier identified on the Purchase Order for the purchase of Goods and/or Services. When accepted, a Purchase Order supersedes all prior agreements, purchase orders, quotations, proposals and other communications regarding the Goods and/or Services covered by the Purchase Order, except that a prior agreement signed by an authorized representative of Customer (e.g. the Order or Non-Disclosure Agreement) will continue to apply. The Purchase Order does not constitute an acceptance of any offer, quotation or proposal made by Supplier. Any reference in the Purchase Order to any offer, quotation or proposal made by Supplier is solely to incorporate the description or specifications of the Goods and/or Services in the prior proposal, but only to the extent that the description or specifications do not conflict with the description and specifications in the Purchase Order.

Any terms, conditions or other provisions included in any document or quotation from Supplier shall not be incorporated into an Order unless specifically agreed upon by Customer and included within a Purchase Order. Each Purchase Order is limited to and conditional upon Supplier's acceptance of these Terms exclusively. An Order and these Terms, and any attachments thereto, shall be considered the complete agreement between Customer and Supplier with respect to the subject matter thereof and shall supersede any prior or contemporaneous agreements relating thereto. Any modification of these Terms must be expressly stated in the Order. Each Order can be modified only in accordance with Article III. References herein to "including" shall be deemed to mean "including, but not limited to," or "including, without limitation" or such similar meaning.

4. Purchase Order Acceptance. Supplier accepts a Purchase Order, including these Terms, and forms a contract by doing any of the following:
- a. Commencing any work under the Purchase Order,
 - b. Accepting the Purchase Order in writing,
 - c. Ships the Goods and/or performs the Services, or
 - d. Any other conduct that recognizes the existence of a contract with respect to the subject matter of the Purchase Order.
5. Cooperation. Each Party will reasonably cooperate with the other Party in connection with its obligations under the Order. Such cooperation will include: (i) cooperating with and coordinating work, schedules and other performance obligations with other suppliers and/or Subcontractors who are also performing work at the Facility, and (ii) informing the other Party of all management decisions, conditions or other occurrences that the Party reasonably expects to have a material effect on the obligations required to be performed by that Party under the Order, including, without limitation, providing written notice to Customer of any condition or occurrence which Supplier reasonably believes may affect Supplier's, Customer's or any Subcontractor's schedules.
6. Conduct, Safety and Removal. While at a Customer Facility, Supplier shall be responsible for its Personnel, Subcontractors and Affiliates. Supplier and its Personnel, Subcontractors and Affiliates will conduct themselves (including wearing attire acceptable to Customer) in a safe, business-like and professional manner and will comply with Customer's reasonable requests, rules and regulations, including with respect to personal conduct, safety, including the wearing of protective clothing or gear if applicable, parking, building access, identification badges, and security rules and regulations of which Supplier has been notified in writing or of which Supplier should reasonably be aware. Customer shall further have the right to require, at Supplier's expense, health, safety, or other testing to prove, in writing, the fitness of Supplier's employees to enter into Customer's premises. Customer may, upon giving written notice to Supplier, require Supplier to reassign, replace or remove any individual or Subcontractor performing the Services under the Order when Customer determines that the performance of such individual or Subcontractor is such that it may have an adverse impact on Customer. Supplier will, on receipt of such written notice, begin diligent efforts to address Customer's concerns. If Supplier has not, in Customer's reasonable determination, addressed Customer's concerns within five (5) working days from date of written notice by resolving the issue or providing an action plan with respect thereto, Supplier will reassign, replace or remove such individual or Subcontractor and complete such reassignment, replacement or removal as soon as practicable at no cost to Customer. In addition, Customer may, on giving written notice to Supplier, and at no cost to Customer, require the immediate removal of any individual or Subcontractor who has violated any safety or security rules or regulations, or any other policies or procedures, of which Customer has made Supplier aware, or violated any laws or regulations in the course of performing services under the Order or breached any of the provisions of the Order and/or these Terms. Supplier agrees to maintain the highest standards of moral, legal and ethical conduct and to safeguard and promote the reputation of Customer and its products. Supplier shall refrain, and shall ensure that its Personnel and Affiliates, and Subcontractors, refrain from making any negative comments about Customer throughout the term of the relevant Order and for a period of no less than twelve months after the expiration of the Order. Supplier shall take all appropriate measures to verify that all Personnel performing services at a Customer Facility are legally eligible to work in Canada and any province or territory in which such Personnel perform services. Supplier shall complete, execute, and maintain all legally required forms and documentation for all Personnel performing services at a Customer Facility. Supplier shall not knowingly or intentionally direct or allow any of its Personnel to enter a Customer Facility or to perform any services of any nature who is not legally eligible to work in Canada and any province or territory in which such Personnel may enter a Customer Facility or perform services. Upon Customer's request and subject to applicable law, Supplier shall make available to Customer the employment, qualification and training records and documentation of its Personnel, including records and documentation regarding the eligibility of Supplier's Personnel to work in Canada and any province or territory in which such Personnel perform services. If Supplier provides Services at a Customer Facility, Supplier will examine the Facility to determine whether the Facility is safe for the Services and will advise Customer promptly of any situation it deems to be unsafe. Supplier shall be solely responsible for, and Customer shall have no liability for, any loss, expense, damage or claim arising out of, or in connection with, the performance of the Services at a Customer Facility.

7. Subcontractors. Supplier may engage Subcontractors to produce the Goods and perform the Services associated with the Order or other obligations to be performed by Supplier under the Order following the approval of such Subcontractor by Customer, provided that Supplier will remain fully responsible for the acts, omissions, work, activities and other obligations of its Subcontractors and will insure that its Subcontractors perform the work as authorized by and pursuant to their respective engagements with Supplier. Prior to engaging a Subcontractor, Supplier will notify Customer in writing and provide any information that Customer may reasonably request regarding such Subcontractor. If Customer does not object within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice and all requested information, Supplier may engage such Subcontractor. Supplier represents and warrants that any Subcontractor shall be subject to all of Supplier's obligations, responsibilities and warranties under the relevant Order, and that Supplier will ensure the compliance of all Subcontractors with the terms of the Order for which the Subcontractor has been engaged (including these Terms and ensuring that all Subcontractors comply with the insurance requirements, Personnel documentation and other work eligibility and qualification provisions set forth in these Terms). Customer reserves the right to check at any time the qualifications and performance of any Personnel of Supplier or its Subcontractors.

If requested by Customer, Supplier shall provide opportunities to local communities and Indigenous persons or contractors in connection with the Services or provision of the Goods. When performing the Services or provision of the Goods, Supplier shall use best efforts to consider candidates from under-represented communities. Supplier shall provide the information requested by Customer in connection with Supplier's efforts and obligations pursuant to this Section XIII. 25. Unless otherwise approved by Customer, all workers at the Customer Facility site shall be Canadian workers.

8. Subcontractor Reviews. At Customer's request, the Parties will review the performance of any Subcontractor. Matters discussed at such reviews may include without limitation any work performed by a Subcontractor. If Customer determines that the performance of the Subcontractor, including any of its personnel, does not conform to the Order or is otherwise unacceptable, Customer may, without liability, require the removal or termination of such Subcontractor or its personnel. If Customer removes or terminates, or requires the removal or termination, of any Subcontractor or its personnel, Supplier shall ensure that any replacement Subcontractor or its personnel will perform the Services of the removed Subcontractor or its personnel at the same Charges and pursuant to the same terms as set out in the applicable Order.

 - d. provide written proof to Customer in a timely manner of the registrations, notifications and reporting made under the OH&S Laws;
 - e. establish and implement systems that ensure such compliance and maintain reasonable health and safety programs, including health and safety management plans in accordance with the necessary standard of care and the performance of Services in accordance with same;
 - f. comply with all OH&S Laws to prevent injury or damage to Persons, property in, on, under, about or adjacent to the Customer Facility;
 - g. ensure all Persons under their direction and control, accessing the Customer Facility for the purpose of performing Services have effective coverage under the applicable workers' compensation legislation, including personal coverage if they are otherwise exempt from other means of coverage, and Supplier shall ensure any Subcontractors retained to perform Services provide a clearance letter provided by WSIB, before commencing any Services and thereafter on a regular basis, maintain current clearance letters;
 - h. comply with all direction, requests for information and records, and any other management provided by Customer, in respect of the health and safety of Persons at the Customer Facility, provided the same complies with or exceeds all applicable laws;

 - m. ensure that any Subcontractors retained to perform Services comply with the foregoing obligations in (a) through (l) above.

III. Change Orders

1. General. Any addition, reduction, substitution, omission, modification, deletion, removal or other changes to the Order, including to a SOW or a Purchase Order, or the Goods or Services related thereto, ("Change(s)") shall be made through the change order process described in this Article III. The Parties agree that (i) no Change which is reasonably expected to affect the function, Charges or performance of any Goods or Services will be implemented without prior consultation between the Parties; and (ii) all approved Changes will be formalized in a change order ("Change Order") executed by both Parties.

2. Requests for Changes. All requests for Changes by a Party will be communicated in writing by that Party's Business Owner to the other Party's Business Owner, including all requests for Changes communicated electronically. Any request for Changes will include a detailed description of the Change requested (including reasons for proposing the Change), the projected schedule and timing for the Change and the priority of the Change.
3. Change Documentation. Within five (5) Business Days of either Party delivering a request for a Change in accordance with Section III. 2., Supplier shall prepare and deliver to Customer notice of the effect, if any, of the proposed Change on:
 - a. the scope of the Goods or Services,
 - b. Supplier's and Customer's obligations under the Order,
 - c. the Charges, including the budget, price or fees associated with the Change and any costs or cost savings to Customer,
 - d. the impact to the schedule for the delivery of the Goods or completion of the Services, and
 - e. any other reasonably foreseeable implications of the Change which may be relevant to Customer's evaluation of the proposed Change.

Within ten (10) Business Days after receiving such information, Customer will: (i) approve the Change; (ii) withdraw any request for the Change; (iii) reject Supplier's request for Change; or (iv) request further particulars or documents from Supplier as it may reasonably require to evaluate the Change request or information delivered by Supplier. If Customer does not do any of the foregoing within ten (10) Business Days, then Customer shall be deemed to have rejected or withdrawn the request for Change, as applicable. Upon approval by Customer of the Change, the Parties shall enter into a Change Order in respect of the Change. Subject to Customer's rights under Section IV.2, if the Parties cannot agree on the impacts of a Change and Customer would like to proceed with a Change, then Customer shall be entitled to issue a Change Order for such Change and Supplier shall be responsible to carry out and complete the Change and in such event (i) Supplier shall be entitled to the direct costs reasonable incurred by Supplier as a direct result of such Change, if any, and (ii) the Delivery/Completion Date(s) shall be reasonably adjusted to the extent the Change prevents Supplier from delivering the Goods or completing the Services in accordance with the Delivery/Completion Date(s) prior to such Change, as determined by Customer, acting reasonably. For certainty, if Customer orders additional or incremental Goods, the provisions of Section IV.2 shall apply.

IV. Change Orders

1. Goods and Services. Customer may, during the term of the Order, purchase the Goods and Services as described in the applicable Order. Except as may be otherwise expressly negotiated and stated in the Order and in the absence of an express declaration to that effect, Customer shall have no obligation to purchase any particular quantity of Goods and/or require any particular Services from Supplier. Supplier shall produce the Goods and perform the Services as ordered by Customer in accordance with the Order and shall, unless otherwise provided in the Order provide and pay for labor, materials, equipment, tools, utilities, transportation, and other facilities and services necessary for proper execution of Supplier's obligations under the Order, whether temporary or permanent and whether or not incorporated, or to be incorporated, into the Goods and Services. Supplier shall follow all written instructions from Customer. Customer shall not be responsible for verbal instructions given by any other Persons or for Supplier's interpretations of the Terms and/or other Purchase Order, SOW or other part of the Order. Supplier shall keep the Goods and Services, as well as Customer's Facility and any other property leased or owned by Customer, free and clear of any and all liens, encumbrances and claims arising out of or relating to the Order.
2. Ordering. Each Purchase Order shall specify the description, quantity, Charges, special requirements, if any, delivery dates for Goods and completion dates for Services, shipping terms and any additional terms as mutually agreed upon between the Parties for the Goods and/or Services ordered by Customer from Supplier (collectively, the “Order Terms”). Customer may, during the term of the Order, order additional or incremental Goods and Services from Supplier under the Order pursuant to and in accordance with Article III and, for a period of 12 months from the date of the Order, Customer shall have the right, at its option, to purchase additional Goods by issuing a Change Order (which are the same type of Goods as specified in the Order) for the lesser of (i) the fair market value of such Goods, or (ii) the same amount as the Charges for the specific Goods within a Purchase Order (and Supplier shall promptly deliver such Goods to Customer). Supplier shall not fabricate or ship any Goods or provide any Services except to the extent authorized in Customer’s written Orders.

3. Shipping, Risk of Loss and Title. Except as otherwise stated in the Order, Customer requires that Supplier ship Goods delivery duty paid (“DDP”) to the designated Customer Facility. Shipping, including carriage, shall be arranged by Supplier and shall be at Supplier’s cost. Except as otherwise stated in the Order, Incoterms 2010 shall apply to all shipments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, unless specified in the Order, title and risk of loss or damage to the Goods shall pass to Customer upon acceptance of the Goods and Services at the designated Customer Facility in accordance with Section IV. 5., without prejudice to Customer’s rights to reject or return Goods pursuant to the Terms.
4. Packing. Customer will hold Supplier responsible for, and Supplier represents and warrants that Goods shall be properly, safely and carefully packed, prepared, stored, secured and stowed for shipment, including loading, unloading, handling, storing, carrying, keeping, caring for, protecting and transporting the Goods, from the point of shipment until they reach and are accepted by Customer at their final destination, whether on or off vehicles, in temporary storage, or not in Supplier’s physical care, custody and control. Supplier represents and warrants that it will select transportation methods and carriers using reasonable care. Drivers are to be legally licensed and professionally trained in the handling, loading, unloading and transport of Goods. Any additional freight, cartage, storage or other cost incurred, directly or indirectly, resulting from Supplier’s failure to observe the conditions set forth in these Terms shall be charged to Supplier’s account. Without any limitation or waiver of any rights, Customer may require Supplier, at Supplier’s expense, to ship Goods express, by air or by any special method if Supplier fails to meet the delivery requirements of the Order. Damaged Goods will be returned to Supplier at Supplier’s expense.
5. Acceptance of Goods and Services. Except as otherwise stated in the Order, acceptance by Customer of Goods or Services shall occur upon Customer’s notification to Supplier that it has accepted the Goods and Services, which notification will be given by Customer within the Acceptance Period (as defined herein) when Customer confirms the Goods have been satisfactorily delivered, inspected, and installed, or the Services have been fully performed, and the Goods and Services meet all applicable performance criteria set forth in the Order. Customer shall inspect and notify Supplier in writing within a reasonable time from the date the Goods and Services have been received or performed, whether Customer has accepted or rejected the Goods or Services (the “Acceptance Period”). Customer’s payment of any invoice shall not be deemed to constitute acceptance of the Goods or Services, and its acceptance of the Goods or Services shall not be construed as evidence that the Goods or Services do, in fact, conform in all respects with the Goods and Services requirements set forth in the Order, or as a waiver of Supplier’s warranty obligations as contained herein.
6. Customs Related Matters. Credits or benefits resulting from the Order, including trade credits, export credits, or the refund of duties (including duty drawback), taxes, or fees belong to Customer. Supplier, as identified in the Purchase Order, shall provide all information and certificates (including FTA certificates and United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (“USMCA”) Certificates of Origin) necessary to permit Customer to receive these benefits or credits. Supplier agrees to notify Customer of any Goods or Services which are subject to Canada’s or any other country’s import or export laws and to fulfill any customs, FTA or USMCA related obligations, origin marking, or labeling requirements, and content origin requirements. Supplier shall notify Customer in writing of any Goods subject to Canadian export laws and regulations, including any changes to provincial/territorial or FTA or USMCA content, which in each case are subject to Customer approval. Export licenses or authorizations necessary for the export of Goods are Supplier’s responsibility unless otherwise stated in the Order, in which case Supplier shall provide the information necessary to enable Customer to obtain the licenses or authorizations. Supplier shall promptly notify Customer in writing of any material or components used by Supplier in filling the Order that Supplier purchases in a country other than the country in which the Goods are delivered. Supplier shall furnish any documentation and information necessary to establish the country of origin or to comply with the applicable country's rules of origin requirements. Supplier shall promptly advise Customer of any material or components imported into the country of origin and any duty included in the Goods' purchase price. If Goods are manufactured in a country other than the country in which Goods are delivered, Supplier shall mark Goods "Made in [country of origin]." Supplier shall provide to Customer and the appropriate governmental agency the documentation necessary to determine the admissibility and the effect of entry of Goods into the country in which Goods are delivered. This shall include supporting documentation required by Canada Border Services Agency and any other governmental agencies, including, without limitation, Transport Canada, Environment & Climate Change Canada, and Health Canada. Supplier warrants that any information that is supplied to Customer about the import or export of Goods is true and that all sales covered by the Order will be made at not less than fair value under the anti-dumping laws of the countries to which the Goods are exported. To the extent any Goods covered by the Order are to be imported into Canada, Supplier shall comply with all applicable recommendations or requirements of the Canada Border Services Agency's Partners in Protection ("PIP") program. Upon request, Supplier shall certify in writing its compliance with the PIP program and shall provide any supporting documentation requested by Customer and/or the Canada Border Services Agency.

7. Time and Quantity of the Essence. Time and quantity are of the essence to Customer. Supplier shall deliver the Goods and complete the Services in accordance with the Delivery/Completion Date(s). Time and quantity provisions of Order(s) generated in connection with these Terms shall be strictly observed. Supplier shall promptly notify Customer in writing of any and all events which could affect the obligation of Supplier to make deliveries of Goods and/or Services at specified times or in specified quantities and of corrective measures that Supplier shall implement to comply with Supplier's obligations under the Order. In such circumstances, Customer may exercise any and all rights it may have pursuant to the Order. Alternatively, Customer may, at its option, require Supplier to do all things necessary at no cost to Customer (including without limitation working overtime or extra shifts, or shipping by premium means, all at Supplier's expense) to deliver or perform as committed. The fact that such notice is given, however, shall not affect or diminish any obligation of Supplier. Customer is not obligated to accept early deliveries, late deliveries, partial deliveries or excess deliveries. Any provision to the contrary herein notwithstanding, and in addition to any other remedies that Customer may have under these Terms or by law, in the event that Supplier is delayed in delivering the Goods and/or completing the Services by the applicable Delivery/Completion Date(s) to Customer, Supplier shall pay the Daily Delay Liquidated Damages Amount for each day that the delivery of the Goods and/or completion of the Services is delayed, however, that such liquidated damages shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the Delay Liquidated Damages Cap. If the Daily Delay Liquidated Damages Amount owing by Supplier reach the aggregate Delay Liquidated Damages Cap then any further delay by Supplier shall be a material breach of the Agreement and Customer may pursue any of its rights or remedies at law or in equity, including without limitation terminating the Order, or any part thereof, for cause. Supplier acknowledges that the Daily Delay Liquidated Damages Amount are reasonable, are not Customer's exclusive remedy in the event of delay and that Customer may pursue any and all rights and remedies it may have at law or in equity, including without limitation recovering liquidated damages in accordance with this Section, in the event of Supplier's delay. Customer, without cost or liability to Supplier, may reschedule delivery of the Goods or Services by giving timely written notice to Supplier.
8. Acceleration and Recovery Plan. If Supplier is delayed providing the Goods or performing the Services, as applicable, Customer shall have the right, at any time, to require Supplier to:
 - a. at Supplier's cost, take action, including to reallocate resources, to work overtime or extra shifts, or to provide such additional labour, equipment or materials or cooperate with a third party, such that Supplier's supply of the Goods and performance of the Services, as applicable, is accelerated or improved to meet the Delivery/Completion Date(s); and
 - b. to provide a recovery plan demonstrating the corrective measures that will be taken by Supplier to overcome such delay and meet the Delivery/Completion Date(s). Supplier shall provide such plan to Customer within 7 days of Customer's request and Supplier shall otherwise promptly implement and comply with such recovery plan and all costs and expenses incurred by Supplier in relation to such corrective action plan shall be to the cost of Supplier.

9. Design and Manufacturing Procedures and other Services. Supplier shall comply with the design and manufacturing requirements and procedures of Customer, including without limitation procedures relating to testing, safety, delivery, installation, scheduling, production and training. 13. Warranty Costs. All costs incurred in connection with performing any warranty obligation, including all travel expenses and daily allowances, shall be the obligation of Supplier and Supplier shall fulfill Supplier's warranty obligations without additional fees or charges of any kind to Customer, unless otherwise specified in the Order or otherwise agreed by Customer in writing.
14. Supplier's Performance Security. If required with a Purchase Order, and then upon the effective date of the Order, Supplier shall provide Customer with Supplier's Performance Security.

Supplier's Performance Security shall remain in full force and effect until the later of (i) expiry of the warranty period and any Replacement Warranty Period, or (ii) resolution of any outstanding Customer claims which Supplier is notified of prior to expiry of the period in (i) above. When Supplier is in default under an Order or where Customer is entitled to exercise a right or remedy under this Purchase Order, including when monies are due and owing to Customer, Customer may have recourse to all or part of Supplier's Performance Security, in which event Customer may draw down the applicable amount or exercise its rights and remedies from Supplier's Performance Security, and without derogating from any other rights and remedies available to Customer under the Order, Supplier's Performance Security or under applicable laws. Customer may exercise any such rights and remedies at its discretion and without Supplier having any right of objection or prior notice of any nature whatsoever, without prejudice to Supplier's dispute resolution rights in Article XIII.

15. Spare Parts. If applicable in a Purchase Order, Supplier shall:

- (a) supply any Mandatory Spare Parts as part of the Goods and/or Services to the designated delivery location on or before the applicable delivery dates or completion dates, the cost of which is included in the Charges; and
- (b) upon Customer's request, promptly deliver the Operational Spares to Customer (to the designated delivery location in a Purchase Order) that are ordered by Customer at any time throughout the Spare Availability Period. Customer shall be entitled to purchase the Operational Spares from Supplier for the amounts specified in a Purchase Order.

VIII. Indemnification

1. Indemnification by Supplier. All indemnification provisions in the Order are supplemental to and part of the indemnification provisions in this Article VIII. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, Supplier shall, at its expense, indemnify, defend and hold harmless Customer and its Affiliates, agents, and invitees and their respective Personnel, successors and assigns (each a "Customer Indemnitee"), in full against all loss, liability, damages, fines, penalties, deficiencies, fees, costs and expenses, legal costs (on a full indemnity basis), settlements, professional fees, expert fees, and judgments arising from and relating to any claims, actions, or lawsuits (collectively, "Losses") claimed by any Third Person in any claim, demand, suit or proceeding in connection with any of the following:
 - a. any misrepresentation by Supplier or the breach by Supplier of its obligations or warranties to Customer under these Terms or the Order;
 - b. the death or bodily or personal injury of, or other legally enforceable damage incurred by, any agent, employee, Customer, business invitee, or business visitor or other person caused by the breach of contract, breach of warranty, negligence, misconduct or any other acts or omissions of Supplier or its Personnel or Subcontractors;
 - c. the damage, loss or destruction of any real or personal property caused by the breach of contract, breach of warranty, negligence, misconduct or any other acts or omissions of Supplier or its Personnel or Subcontractors;
 - d. liens, encumbrances and payment and other claims relating in any manner to the Goods and Services which are asserted by or through Supplier, any Subcontractor, or anyone directly or indirectly engaged by any of them or for anyone for whose acts they may be responsible; or
 - e. Claims by Supplier or its Personnel, Affiliates or Subcontractors relating to any benefits normally associated with employment at Customer, including insurance, pension, health, lease cars, compensation, tax withholdings, and social security, and any claims relating to Supplier's failure to comply with any applicable federal or provincial/territorial statutes, laws, ordinances, rules, regulations or orders pertaining to immigration, discrimination, wrongful discharge (actual or constructive), breach of express or implied contract, worker's compensation, compensation (including payroll, withholding, employment taxation, social security, unemployment insurance, minimum wage, overtime, unpaid wages, vacation and/or sick leave pay), intentional and/or negligent infliction of emotional distress, defamation, and/or any other cause of action.

2. Indemnification by Supplier with Respect to Intellectual Property. Supplier shall, at its expense, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Customer Indemnitees from any Third Person claims made against Customer or any of its Affiliates and their respective Personnel in full against all loss, liability, damages, costs and expenses, including legal costs (on a full indemnity basis), settlements, professional fees, expert fees, and judgments arising from any claims, actions, or lawsuits alleging that any Goods or Services infringe a Third Person's copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property or proprietary right ("Intellectual Property Claim"). Customer shall notify Supplier promptly in writing and furnish Supplier with such information and assistance as Supplier may reasonably request to evaluate the Intellectual Property Claim. Supplier shall then, at its own expense and option, either (i) settle the Intellectual Property Claim, (ii) procure for Customer and its Affiliates, as applicable, the right to use the alleged infringing Good or Service, (iii) replace or modify the alleged infringing Good or Service in order to avoid the Intellectual Property Claim, (iv) remove the alleged infringing Good or Service and refund the prices (including transportation costs) paid by Customer and its Affiliates, as applicable, to Supplier less a reasonable amount directly proportionate to Customer's, and its Affiliates', as applicable, actual usage of the infringing Good or Service, or (v) litigate the Intellectual Property Claim; provided, however, prior to Supplier taking any of the foregoing responses, the Parties shall meet to discuss the action or actions which Supplier proposes to take in response to the Intellectual Property Claim. If the Parties are unable to agree upon the action or actions to take in response to the Intellectual Property Claim, Customer may, at its sole option and without liability, elect to terminate the Order, or any part thereof, as to any alleged infringing Good or Service upon five (5) days prior written notice to Supplier. Regardless of Supplier's response to the Intellectual Property Claim or Customer's election to terminate the Order, or any part thereof, as to any alleged infringing Good or Service, Supplier shall remain obligated to defend the Intellectual Property Claim and to pay any final judgments awarded against Supplier and/or Customer and its Affiliates, as applicable, based upon the Intellectual Property Claim.

Supplier shall have no obligation to indemnify Customer against any Third Person claims made against Customer or any of its Personnel or Affiliates if it is finally determined that liability is the sole result of (i) a modification made to a Good by Customer which has not been approved by Supplier, or (ii) the use by Customer of a Good in combination with goods that are not provided to Customer by Supplier and which use is not contemplated by the Order and infringes the Third-Person's copyright, patent or trade secret.

3. Indemnification Procedures. The following procedures will apply to all claims for indemnification under this Article:
 - a. Promptly after receipt by Customer of written notice of the commencement or threatened commencement of any action, suit, proceeding, judgment, claim made involving a claim for which a Customer Indemnitee may be entitled to indemnification, written notice of such claim will be conveyed to Supplier. However, the failure to so notify Supplier will not relieve that Party of its obligations under the Order.
 - b. The Customer Indemnitees will have the right to determine who controls the defense in any negotiations or legal proceedings pertaining to a claim covered by this Article (notwithstanding that Supplier shall bear the cost of the defense for the Customer Indemnitees). If the Customer Indemnitees elect to control their own defense and permit Supplier to control its own defense, both Parties may select their own legal counsel and experts; however, to the maximum extent possible permitted by the circumstances and ethical considerations, counsel for Supplier and counsel for the Customer Indemnitees will work together to avoid duplication of effort or expense, in legal costs or otherwise. In addition, Supplier and the Customer Indemnitees will make good faith efforts to coordinate their activities so as to take consistent positions in the course of negotiations or legal proceedings.
 - c. If Supplier controls the defense, Supplier shall timely provide to Customer Indemnitees all information with respect to such defense, compromise or settlement as Customer Indemnitees may request. Supplier shall not assume any position or take any action in connection with such defense, compromise or settlement (including without limitation any admission of liability) that would impose an obligation of any kind (other than the obligations under Article VIII. hereof) or restrict the actions of Customer Indemnitees, it being understood that Supplier would be acting solely on its own behalf, for its own account and at its own risk.

- d. No admission of liability nor any settlement, compromise or termination of any actions, suits, proceedings, judgments, claims made or threatened will be made by Supplier without the prior written consent of the Customer Indemnitee, such consents not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
 - e. If Supplier does not participate in the defense of a claim covered by this Section, the Customer Indemnitees will have the right to defend the claim in such manner as they may deem appropriate, at Supplier's cost and expense. Supplier will promptly reimburse to Customer all such costs and expense incurred by the Customer Indemnitees, demand for which may be made periodically, and such amounts shall become due and owing by Supplier to Customer.
 - f. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Order, no limitations on damages or remedies set forth in the Order shall apply to Supplier's obligations to indemnify, defend and hold the Customer Indemnitees harmless against Losses. Indemnity obligations shall survive the termination, cancellation or non-renewal of the Order. Supplier's obligation to indemnify, defend and hold harmless shall apply regardless of whether the claim arises in tort, negligence, contract, warranty, strict liability or otherwise except to the extent of (i) claims that arise solely as a result of the negligence or willful misconduct of Customer and (ii) Third Person claims made against Customer or any of its Affiliates as set forth in Section VIII. 2. above. The indemnification obligations set forth in these Terms, including this Article, are independent of and in addition to any insurance and warranty obligations of Supplier.
4. Governmental Authority Waiver. Supplier shall not seek to recover any Claims from, and Supplier waives and releases: (i) his Majesty the King in Right of Ontario, his ministers, agents (including Infrastructure Ontario), appointees and employees and the Corporation of the City of St. Thomas; and (ii) his Majesty the King in Right of Canada, his ministers, agents, appointees and employees in connection with the project or in connection with any of the above entity's involvement in the project, except any Claims resulting from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of a party in (a) or (b) above and Supplier shall indemnify Customer for any Claims incurred by Customer as a result of Supplier's breach of this Section VIII. 4.
 5. No Limitation on Mitigation Obligations. Nothing in these Terms in any way restricts or limits the general obligation under applicable laws of an indemnified Party to mitigate any damages which it may suffer or incur. If any Claim can be reduced by any recovery, settlement or otherwise under or pursuant to any insurance coverage, or pursuant to any claim, recovery, settlement or payment by or against any other Person, the indemnified Party shall take all appropriate steps to enforce such recovery, settlement or payment and the amount of any damages of the indemnified Party will be reduced by the amount of proceeds actually recoverable by the indemnified Party. If an indemnified Party receives an amount under such insurance coverage or pursuant to any claim, recovery, settlement or payment by or against any other Person, at any time subsequent to any indemnification payment made by an indemnifying Party, then such indemnified Party shall promptly pay over to the indemnifying Party an amount equal to the lesser of i) the amount of such indemnification payment, or (ii) the net amount of such recovery.

IX. Liability Limitation and Force Majeure

1. Limitation of Liability. Customer shall not be liable for, and Supplier hereby waives any right to, (i) any special, contingent, exemplary, indirect, incidental, consequential or punitive damages, and (ii) any lost or anticipated loss of profits, fees, business, use, revenue, production, contracts, business reputation, opportunities or costs associated with business interruptions or like damages (the "Excluded Damages"), whether based upon contract, tort or any other legal theory, resulting from or in any way connected with the performance by either Party of their respective obligations, covenants and agreements under the Order. Customer shall not be liable to Supplier for the Excluded Damages, whether foreseeable or not, and even if Customer has been advised or otherwise has knowledge of the possibility of the Excluded Damages.
2. Force Majeure. Except for Services relating to business continuity and/or recovery of data, any delay or failure of either Party to perform its obligations will be excused if and to the extent the Party is unable to perform due to an event or occurrence beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, such as: (i) acts of God, including action of the elements, epidemics, landslides, earthquakes, floods or natural disaster, (ii) industry-wide and provincial-wide strikes, work stoppages, restraints of labour, or other industrial/labour disturbances, and (iii) acts of the public enemy, including wars which are either declared or undeclared, terrorism, blockades and insurrections (each a "Force Majeure Event"). The following shall not be considered a Force Majeure Event: (i) a lack of funds or inability to pay amounts owed under these Terms or Order for any reason whatsoever or an inability to use available funds; (ii) the default or delay of any Subcontractor (except where constituting, caused by, or arising out of the Force Majeure Events in (i) to (iii) above); (iii) shortages or non-availability of labour, accommodation, materials, supplies or other resources or strikes, work stoppages, or other industrial/labour disturbances of a regional nature or those only affecting Supplier; and (iv) seasonal conditions or weather, including the seasonal conditions of any access roads or means of transport to the Customer Facility. Supplier shall provide Customer with notice within five (5) days following the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, which notice shall provide full particulars of the Force Majeure Event, its anticipated duration and the obligations a Party is unable to perform. If Supplier fails to submit such notice within such five (5) day period, Supplier shall be deemed to have waived its right to any relief related to such Force Majeure Event.

Supplier shall use its best efforts to reduce the effects of such events on Supplier's performance of its obligations. Supplier's inability to perform as a result of, or delays caused by, Supplier's or Subcontractor's insolvency or lack of financial resources is deemed to be within Supplier's control. The change in cost or availability of materials or components based on market conditions, supplier actions, or contract disputes, or any labor strike or other labor disruption applicable to a Party or any of its subcontractors or suppliers, including Subcontractors, shall not excuse such Party's performance (under theories of force majeure, commercial impracticability or otherwise) and each Party assumes these risks. As soon as possible (but no more than one full Business Day) after the occurrence, the affected Party will provide written notice describing such delay, including any corrective measures which the affected Party will implement to cure such delay, and assuring the other Party of the anticipated duration of the delay and the time that the delay will be cured. During a delay or failure to perform by Supplier, Customer may unilaterally by written notice to Supplier and without liability to Supplier: (a) purchase Goods from other sources and reduce the quantity of the Goods delivered by Supplier, (b) require Supplier to deliver to Customer in accordance with the terms of the Order all finished goods, work in process and parts and materials produced or acquired for work under the Order and/or (c) have Supplier provide Goods from other sources in quantities and at a time requested by Customer and at the purchase price set forth in the Order. In addition, Supplier at its expense will take all necessary actions to ensure the supply of Goods to Customer for a period of at least thirty (30) days during any anticipated labor disruption or resulting from the expiration of Supplier's labor contracts. If delay on the part of Supplier lasts longer than thirty (30) days, Customer may terminate the Order without liability and Supplier shall reimburse Customer for costs associated with the termination.

If a Force Majeure Event prevents Supplier from producing the Goods and completing any Services on or before the applicable delivery date, completion date or project milestone date, Supplier shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of time to the delivery date, completion date or project milestone date to the extent of any delay which cannot be mitigated or overcome by Supplier. Any extension of time granted to Supplier as a result of a Force Majeure Event shall be determined by Customer by Change Order, acting reasonably and in consultation with Supplier, and which extension shall be equal to the time period required to remedy the impacts of such Force Majeure Event, and for the period which cannot be mitigated or overcome by Supplier, considering the number of days Supplier is actually prevented from progressing the Services due to the Force Majeure Event. Supplier will provide all information reasonably requested by Customer in connection with: (a) any delays or alleged delays in connection with a Force Majeure Event; (b) the nature of the Force Majeure Event or any other information in connection with such Force Majeure Event; and (c) the actions Supplier has taken to mitigate the impacts of the Force Majeure Event.

X. Insurance

1. Maintenance of Insurance. Supplier shall maintain in force, and cause its Subcontractors to maintain in force, at its own expense, insurance of the type and in the amounts set forth below:

- a. Property All Risk insurance to cover Goods in transit, in warehouse or in storage whether on vehicles or in Facility(s) controlled or operated by Supplier or its Subcontractor or any other Third Person: Minimum limit of $5,000,000 to cover full replacement cost of Goods including additional storage, clean-up costs, salvage, security, expediting or additional transportation fees. Customer will be added as loss payee and additional insured with respect to its interest in the Goods.

 - c. Employer's liability insurance with a minimum limit in an amount not less than $1,000,000 per accident, covering bodily injury by accident, and $1,000,000 per policy covering bodily injury by disease, including death.

Comprehensive commercial general liability insurance (written on an occurrence basis and including contractual liability and products and completed operations liability insurance) in an amount not less than $5,000,000 per occurrence, general aggregate, products and completed operations aggregate. Professional Liability or Errors and Omissions liability insurance to cover Losses due to Supplier's errors or omissions in the performance or failure to perform its professional Services obligations or responsibilities under the Order, with a per claim limit in an amount not less than the greater of $2,000,000 and the value of the applicable Purchase Order(s) and the greater of $2,000,000 or the value of the applicable Purchase Order(s) in the annual aggregate.
 - g. Employee fidelity bond with Third Person liability endorsement or Customer added as loss payee in an amount not less than $500,000.

 - i. Insurance coverage with respect to information and data protection security, cyber liability and similar matters with respect to information security in amounts not less than $5,000,000.
2. Rating of Insurance Companies. All policies described above will be written by insurance companies rated at least A-:VII by A.M. Best's rating service or equivalent. The required insurance will provide primary and non-contributory coverage to Customer for claims arising out of or in connection with the Order.
 3. Waiver. Supplier, for itself and its Subcontractors, including their respective insurance carriers, hereby agrees to waive any right of subrogation and have no right of recovery from Customer, its Personnel or its insurers. Supplier, for itself and on behalf of its Subcontractors, warrants that their respective insurance carriers grant them the right to agree to such advance waivers of subrogation. Supplier represents that required types and amounts of insurance will necessarily be adequate to respond to all exposures to Losses. The required limits of insurance shall not be deemed as a limitation or maximum liability with respect to the indemnity obligations as set forth under the Order or these Terms. Supplier agrees to be financially responsible for its and its Subcontractors' respective deductibles, retentions, self-insurance or co-insurance obligations, or claims or Losses in excess of the required insurance coverage limits.
 4. Insurance Documentation. On or before the Effective Date of the Order, and annually thereafter upon expiration, Supplier, and if applicable its Subcontractor, will furnish to Customer certificates of insurance and other appropriate documentation (including endorsements as required to bind the insurers) evidencing all coverage referenced in this Article. Such certificates or other documentation will include a provision under which the applicable insurer will give at least thirty (30) days' written notice to Customer before limits or scopes of coverage are materially altered or insurance is cancelled or non-renewed. Supplier also will require by contract that each Subcontractor furnish such certificates and other appropriate documentation to Customer and that the certificates or other appropriate documentation include a provision under which the applicable insurer will give at least thirty (30) days' written notice to Customer before limits or scopes of coverage are materially altered or insurance is cancelled or non-renewed. Without limiting any of the rights and remedies available to Customer, it shall be a condition precedent to Customer's obligation to pay Supplier that Supplier shall have timely provided the certificates or certified copies of insurance policies as required herein. In addition, Supplier will promptly advise Customer in writing if it becomes aware that required limits or scopes of coverage are materially altered or that required insurance is cancelled or non-renewed.

XI. Intellectual Property

1. Intellectual Property Representations. Supplier hereby represents and warrants to Customer that it owns all rights in (or has obtained all rights necessary to license or otherwise furnish to Customer) the Goods and Services (including software, microcode, and other intellectual property of any sort) provided to Customer under the Order. Customer hereby represents and warrants to Supplier that it owns all rights in (or has obtained all rights necessary to license or otherwise furnish to Supplier) all materials furnished by Customer to Supplier and which Supplier uses in connection with its production of the Goods or the rendering of the Services including without limitation any artwork or files furnished by Customer to Supplier.
2. Customer Intellectual Property. Other than as may be required for the performance of the Services hereunder, nothing in these Terms shall be construed as granting Supplier or any other Person any license or other right to use any intellectual property or other property that Customer may now or hereafter own, possess, or in which it may hold licensing rights.

The Parties agree that all Deliverables (as defined below) and Services Product shall be the property of, and owned exclusively by, Customer. Supplier agrees that neither it nor any member of Supplier Group shall have any ownership rights of any kind therein. Supplier, for itself and on behalf of each member of Supplier Group, hereby assigns to Customer all of Supplier's and any member of Supplier Group's rights, titles and interests, if any, in and to the Deliverables and Services Product automatically upon the creation, development or conception of same. This assignment includes any and all rights to secure any patent, trademark, copyright, industrial design or other registrations (including any renewals or extensions thereto) with respect of the Services Product in Canada, the United States and elsewhere. The foregoing does not apply to Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights, which (subject to this Section XI. 2.) shall remain the exclusive property of Supplier.

Supplier hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waives and shall cause each member of Supplier Group to unconditionally and irrevocably waive all moral rights of Supplier or any member of Supplier Group that exist or may exist in any Deliverable or Services Product. Supplier shall, upon Customer request, obtain from each and every one of Supplier Group any agreement or assignment required to confirm (i) the ownership rights in the Deliverables and Services Product in favour of Customer, (ii) the licenses granted herein, and (iii) the waiver of all moral rights therein.

No element of Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights shall be used in the performance of the Services or become embedded or bundled in, or become necessary for use in any Services Product or Deliverable, or necessary for the design, function, construction, evaluation, testing, operation, repair, modification, extension, rebuilding, retrofit, refurbishment, maintenance service or decommissioning of any aspect of the Project (or any other project), without the prior express written consent of Customer. To the extent that any element or elements of Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights is used in the performance of the Services or becomes embedded or bundled in, or is necessary for use of any Services Product or Deliverable, or necessary for the design, function, construction, evaluation, testing, operation, repair, modification, extension, rebuilding, retrofit, refurbishment, maintenance service or decommissioning of any aspect of the project (or any other project), Customer and its Affiliates are hereby granted an irrevocable, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide, royalty-free, sublicensable (at any level), perpetual, fully paid up right and license to Use such element or elements of Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights, without obligation to account to, or obtain consent from, Supplier or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt: (i) the foregoing shall include the right and license to use such Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights in connection with the design, function, construction, evaluation, testing, operation, repair, modification, extension, rebuilding, retrofit, refurbishment, maintenance service or decommissioning of any facility worldwide in perpetuity and at no additional cost, fees, or expenses; and (ii) Supplier shall not, without Customer's prior express written consent, embed or bundle into any Deliverable or Services Product the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party (other than a member of Supplier Group).

Without limiting any of the representations, warranties, conditions, or covenants of Supplier set out in these Terms, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services Products and Deliverables are not suitable for any other project that may be undertaken by or on behalf of Customer or its Affiliates. Customer further acknowledges and agrees that Supplier may include the foregoing disclaimer in any Deliverables.

3. Definitions. For purposes of the Order:
 - a. "Services Product" means any Intellectual Property Rights which are conceived of, developed, created by or on behalf of Supplier or any member of the Supplier Group, either solely or with others, in whole or in part, during the course of, or in connection with, the performance of the Services or these Terms (including the provision of any Deliverables); but does not include Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights.
4. Names and Trademarks. Neither Party shall acquire, by reason of the Order, any right, title or interest in or to the other Party's names, trade names or trademarks.

XII. Termination

1. Termination Without Cause. Customer may terminate the Order at any time after the Effective Date without cause upon 30 days' prior written notice to Supplier. Upon receipt of written notice of termination, and unless otherwise directed by Customer, Supplier will comply with the requirements of Section XII. 5. Upon termination by Customer under this Section, Customer will be obligated to pay only the following without duplication: (i) the Charges for all finished Goods and Services in the quantities ordered by Customer that conform to the Order and are performed, delivered and accepted by Customer for which Supplier has not been paid, and (ii) Supplier's reasonable actual cost of carrying out its obligation under Section XII. 5. d. Customer shall pay for Supplier's reasonable actual cost of merchantable and usable work-in-process, as well as any parts and materials, which Customer requests be transferred to it under Section XII. 5. b. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Customer will have no obligation for and will not be required to pay Supplier, directly or on account of claims by Subcontractors, for Excluded Damages and including costs associated with business interruptions, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development or engineering costs, facilities or equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized capital or depreciation costs, finished goods, work-in-process or raw materials that Supplier fabricates or procures in amounts exceeding those authorized in the Order, or general administrative burden charges from termination of the Order, except as otherwise expressly stated in a separate Order issued by Customer. Customer's obligation for any Supplier claims related to termination will not exceed the Charges. Supplier will furnish to Customer, within one month after the date of termination, its termination claim, which will consist exclusively of the claims eligible for reimbursement by Customer to Supplier that are expressly permitted by this Section. Customer may audit Supplier's records before or after payment to verify amounts requested in Supplier's termination claim.
2. Termination for Cause. Either Party (the "Non-Defaulting Party") may terminate the Order if the other Party (the "Defaulting Party") breaches any of its material duties or material obligations under the Order or these Terms, by delivering to the Defaulting Party a written default notice (the "Default Notice"). The Default Notice shall specify: (i) the default(s) in reasonable detail, (ii) the action necessary to cure the default(s), and (iii) the cure period within which the Defaulting Party must cure the default(s), which cure period shall not be less than thirty (30) days for a payment default, and ten (10) days for a performance default (the "Cure Period"). If the Defaulting Party cures the default(s) within the applicable Cure Period to the reasonable satisfaction of the Non-Defaulting Party, the Non-Defaulting Party will rescind the Default Notice. If the Defaulting Party does not cure the default(s) during the applicable Cure Period, at the option of the Non-Defaulting Party, the Order will terminate as of the close of business on the last day of the applicable Cure Period or on such later date as determined by the Non-Defaulting Party. Upon written notice of termination by Customer, Supplier shall promptly return all amounts previously paid to Supplier by Customer for the Goods (if any) and, in addition to any other damages, Customer shall be entitled to, and Supplier shall pay to Customer, damages equal to (i) all costs incurred by Customer in connection with the manufacturing of the Goods for the Order, including without limitation training, systems programming, site preparation, cost of supplies and facilities, excepting only such costs as are included in the price of substitute goods obtained from any other manufacturer, and (ii) the difference in price between the Goods to be delivered hereunder and substitute goods. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Supplier shall not be entitled to terminate the Order if Customer does not pay an amount subject to a bona fide dispute.

If Customer terminates the Order as a result of Section XII. 3., Supplier shall be deemed to have breached its material duties or obligations in relation to every other Order such that Customer may, in its discretion, terminate any, or all, Orders in accordance with these Terms, but without the requirement to provide the Supplier with a further opportunity to remedy the breach of its material duties or obligations.

3. Termination for Insolvency. Customer may terminate the Order if Supplier: (i) admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; (ii) is the subject of a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding; (iii) has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or regulator to be insolvent or unable to meet its obligations to pay its debts as they generally become due; (iv) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or a receiver is appointed because of Supplier's insolvency; (v) is wound up, liquidated or ceases to carry on business; or (vi) is unable to pay its debts generally as they come due, by giving written notice to Supplier of its intention to terminate the Order as of a date specified in the written notice, which date will not be less than ten (10) days after the date of the written notice, during which time Supplier may cure such default, or by providing Customer with verification of solvency or otherwise of its ability to perform its obligations hereunder. If Supplier fails to cure such default or otherwise to provide Customer with the information set forth above, the Order will terminate on the date set forth in the written notice.
4. Termination Obligations. Upon receipt of written notice of termination, and unless otherwise directed by Customer, Supplier will at no additional cost to Customer:
 - a. promptly terminate all work under the Order on the effective date of termination;
 - b. transfer title and deliver to Customer the finished Goods, the work in process, the parts and materials that Supplier reasonably produced or acquired according to quantities ordered by Customer and that Supplier cannot use in producing goods for itself or for others, together with all information and materials related to or otherwise used in connection with the Order, including without limitation packaging, documents, standards, databases, specifications, drawings, manufacturing processes or any other items of value (collectively, "Customer's Property");
 - c. prior to allocating any amounts received by Customer to any other source, Supplier shall upon termination for any reason, first verify and settle any claims by Subcontractors for actual costs incurred directly as a result of the termination;
 - d. take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Supplier's possession in which Customer has an interest until disposal instruction from Customer has been received; and
 - e. cooperate with Customer and its designees and provide the Services reasonably requested by Customer or its designees to allow Customer's business operations to continue without material interruption or adverse effect, including with respect to Customer's new supplier. Effective immediately upon termination and without further notice or legal action, Customer may enter Supplier's premises and take possession of all of Customer's Property. Customer may direct that Customer's Property be immediately released to Customer or delivered by Supplier to Customer in accordance with Article IV. Customer shall have no liability with respect to any of Customer's Property until such property is in the Customer's actual possession.
5. Transition Assistance. In addition to the Termination Obligations set forth in Section XII. 5. upon expiration or termination of the Order for any reason, Supplier shall, at Customer's request and subject to these Terms, provide transition assistance services as reasonably requested by Customer for a period of up to ninety (90) days after the termination of an Order or following completion of Supplier's obligations herein (the "Transition Assistance Period") and such transition assistance services shall be included in the Charges for the Goods and/or Services and shall be at no additional cost to Customer. During the Transition Assistance Period, Supplier shall provide transition assistance in order to facilitate the orderly transfer of responsibility for the Goods and Services then being provided by Supplier to Customer or its designees.

6. Survival of Certain Provisions. The provisions of the Order that by their nature should survive any termination of the Order, including, without limitation, Sections VI. through XI., and will survive such termination and any Transition Assistance Period, if requested.

XIII. Miscellaneous

1. Publicity. Neither Party will use the other Party's name, trademarks or service marks or refer to the other Party directly or indirectly in any media release, public announcement or public disclosure relating to the Order or its subject matter to the extent the materials in such media release, announcement or disclosure have not previously been made publicly available without obtaining specific written consent from the other Party for each such use or release, which consent may be withheld at the Party's sole discretion. This restriction includes, but is not limited to, any promotional or marketing materials, Customer lists or business presentations (but not including any announcement intended solely for internal distribution by a Party or any disclosure required by legal, accounting or regulatory requirements beyond the reasonable control of a Party).
2. Notices.
