2. PURCHASE ORDER

THE SUPPLIER states that it is his/her own free will to be bound and accept the terms and conditions established in this document, acknowledging that he/she had prior knowledge of these clauses and of the additional DOCUMENTATION to this document.

Likewise, THE SUPPLIER states that his/her sale or supply conditions or any other conditions will not be applicable, except through agreements expressly granted in writing between the parties, either through the VOLKSWAGEN Purchasing department and / or other documents granted by the legal representatives of the parties.

The PURCHASE ORDER will be legally binding to both parties once it has been confirmed by THE SUPPLIER through his ACCEPTANCE by way of the electronic systems designated by VOLKSWAGEN or, by his/her signature on the PURCHASE ORDER in writing, and / or when THE SUPPLIER delivers the goods or carries out the services which are the object of the PURCHASE ORDER, through his/her partial or total fulfillment, the tacit acceptance of THE SUPPLIER being understood by this

Notwithstanding the above, if the samples, prototypes or final products are produced by THE SUPPLIER or by third parties, but they do not satisfy the conditions agreed on between the parties, VOLKSWAGEN reserves the right to cancel the order it had placed without any responsibility or cost to VOLKSWAGEN.

The PURCHASE ORDER only creates obligations and rights between the signing parties; thus, if THE SUPPLIER does not have previous authorization in writing from VOLKSWAGEN, he/she will not have the capacity to either totally or partially assign, the obligations and / or rights acquired by way of the PURCHASE ORDER, as well as the rights and/or obligations acquired with third parties through the PURCHASE ORDER nor may he/she subcontract third parties for such execution. The SUPPLIER must always release VOLKSWAGEN and hold it harmless from any related obligation or responsibility.

3. DELIVERY AND REMISSION

The remission and delivery of the goods and / or the provision of the services being contracted by virtue of the PURCHASE ORDER, must be carried out by THE SUPPLIER or, where appropriate, by a third party agreed upon by the parties, and the SUPPLIER must oblige the third party to comply with the delivery of the goods and / or services under the terms and conditions agreed to in the PURCHASE ORDER and this document, so that in the event of non-compliance by the third party, THE SUPPLIER will be responsible for the damages and losses caused to VOLKSWAGEN by agreement between the parties regarding the amount and type of payment, volumes, characteristics, specifications and distribution in accordance with the stipulations agreed to in the PURCHASE ORDER, and / or DELIVERY PROGRAM within the indicated term (s) and the place (s) of delivery. 3.1 DELAYS IN DELIVERY DEADLINES

If for any reason THE SUPPLIER is unable to perform the delivery of the goods and / or to render the services contracted on time, such circumstance should be made aware of VOLKSWAGEN immediately, who will be able to take any of the following options:

- a) Terminate the PURCHASE ORDER:
 - i. VOLKSWAGEN will only make payments for the goods and/or services duly delivered and/or provided up until the time the delay is generated; or
 - ii. VOLKSWAGEN reserves the right to return the goods to the SUPPLIER and must return them in the conditions agreed to in the PURCHASE ORDER.
- b) Extemporaneously receive and accept the goods and/or services from THE SUPPLIER.
- c) Acquire the goods or services through a third party, at the SUPPLIER's expense (including the reimbursement to VOLKSWAGEN of the costs derived from the change of SUPPLIER that the latter would have had to pay).

The choice of any of the previous options will be without prejudice to the right of VOLKSWAGEN to charge the SUPPLIER for the expenses, damages and losses caused by its breach.

If VOLKSWAGEN should decide to receive the goods and/or the provision of the service, the delay of which has been caused by THE SUPPLIER, the latter accepts that VOLKSWAGEN may collect, by reason of delay in the delivery time period, the agreed contract penalty, without VOLKSWAGEN having to demonstrate for this purpose, any damages or losses suffered by THE SUPPLIER's noncompliance. The enforceability of the PURCHASE ORDER and the payment of the contract penalty are optional for VOLKSWAGEN, who reserves the right to instead require the payment of damages and losses which may have been suffered by reason of THE SUPPLIER's noncompliance, subsequently agreeing with THE SUPPLIER on the conventional penalty amount to apply.

3.2 RECEIPT OF GOODS AND/OR SERVICES

The goods and/or services that VOLKSWAGEN receives must comply to the agreed conditions as well as to applicable law in force and shall be registered by VOLKSWAGEN as far as quantities, measures, weights or other specifications which have been determined for this purpose, these records being the only officially recognized proof as control of reception and THE SUPPLIER's compliance.

THE SUPPLIER shall not make deliveries in qualities, which are different than those agreed to and / or would not allow for their use, or in greater or lesser amounts except by prior written authorization from VOLKSWAGEN. If such authorization is not given by VOLKSWAGEN, all additional costs for storing, packing or any other service or concept, will be borne exclusively by THE SUPPLIER, for the benefit of VOLKSWAGEN, with THE SUPPLIER authorizing VOLKSWAGEN from now on for the corresponding amounts to be offset, against any amount that VOLKSWAGEN owes to the SUPPLIER, prior authorization of the SUPPLIER.

Any delay or failure of either party to perform its obligations shall be excused if and to the extent that the party is unable to perform due to an event or occurrence beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence in terms of force majeure, provided that the assumptions of clause 1 (m) have been met.

Any deviation from the specifications must be consulted and authorized by the requesting department and Purchasing.

If VOLKSWAGEN is unable to receive the goods and / or provision of services contracted due to acts of God or force majeure, disputes or work stoppages, strike (declared or not), lockouts, riots, embargoes, floods, earthquakes, natural disasters, wars, injunction or court order, measures imposed by authorities, irregularities in transport, import restrictions, interruptions in VOLKSWAGEN companies or companies of its suppliers, market conditions, marketing and sale of finished cars, or any other cause beyond its control, VOLKSWAGEN will be exempt from the obligation to receive the goods and / or services contracted for as long as the circumstances and the effects of said impossibility for reception last, so in these cases THE SUPPLIER will not have the right to demand compliance with the PURCHASE ORDER, nor to demand any compensation for damages and losses. Likewise, as the cause(s) of the impossibility to receive the articles remain, THE SUPPLIER must store them at his/he cost and risk until VOLKSWAGEN is able to take charge of them personally or through a third party it so designates. Where the services are concerned, both parties shall agree to the terms and possibilities to render them by the SUPPLIER and/or their reception by VOLKSWAGEN.

The supplier's failure to comply as a result of, or delays caused by, the supplier's insolvency or lack of financial resources is deemed to be under the supplier's control. Change in the cost or availability of materials or components based on market conditions, supplier actions or contract disputes or any labor strike or other labor disruption applicable to the supplier or any of its subcontractors or sub-suppliers, shall not excuse the supplier's performance and the supplier assumes these risks. As soon as practicable (but not more than one full business day) after it occurs, the supplier shall provide written notice describing such delay and informing VOLKSWAGEN of the anticipated duration of the delay and the time within which the delay will be remedied. During delay or non-compliance by the supplier, VOLKSWAGEN may, at its sole discretion:

- a) purchase supplies from other sources and reduce their hours from the supplier by such quantities, without liability to the supplier; or
- b) require the supplier to deliver to VOLKSWAGEN at VOLKSWAGEN's expense all finished products, work-in-process, and parts and materials produced or procured for work under the Order; or

3.3 PACKING, DELIVERY AND TRANSPORTATION CONDITIONS - ACCEPTANCE OF RISK

VOLKSWAGEN reserves the right to determine the route and mode of delivery of the goods, as well as the means of transport and the type of packaging of the goods. THE SUPPLIER will be responsible for damages caused to the goods by packaging, protection (antioxidant and / or others for its due protection) and improper cargo securing (the latter in case of being the responsibility of the SUPPLIER), if this affects the goods. In the absence of a stipulation to the contrary, the delivery of the goods must be made free of expenses, procedures and responsibilities and will be unloaded at the facilities of VOLKSWAGEN (or where it designates) in accordance with the INCOTERMS that can be negotiated from time to time pursuant to the terms applicable in accordance with the publication of the International Chamber of Commerce in force at the time of issuance of the PURCHASE ORDER, or those terms and conditions that may be agreed between the parties, including the insurance at the cost of THE SUPPLIER.

The expedition of the goods shall be carried out using the remission methods prescribed by VOLKSWAGEN. For each delivery, a receipt must be issued (or an electronic equivalent as provided by the systems designated by VOLKSWAGEN) and if no other agreement has been made, an INVOICE will be issued for each receipt.

THE SUPPLIER will be obliged to follow the indications of VOLKSWAGEN regarding the restitution, return or disposition and maintenance of packing means or packaging, devices, etc. in which the goods are delivered, covered by the PURCHASE ORDER, it being THE SUPPLIER who will be in charge of undertaking the customs procedures that may be required, as well as obtaining, updating, homologation and any other type of certification and / or procedure applicable.

The foregoing also applies to samples required for second or subsequent releases, due to rejections of the samples or prototypes delivered until then and which are attributable to the SUPPLIER.

It shall be understood that although the PURCHASE ORDER protects samples and quotations, this does not imply a commitment by VOLKSWAGEN to accept such samples, or to cover the costs that may be generated for their production (unless there is an agreement to the contrary), nor does it bind VOLKSWAGEN to make a request or formal negotiation with THE SUPPLIER in regard to the goods and / or services for which a sample and / or prototype may have been provided.
